Women's Habitat of Etobicoke
Program Support Worker
Open to full time post-secondary students
Temporary Position 9 weeks – 38 hours per week

Job Summary:

Women's Habitat provides shelter and services to women identified individuals and their dependents who are survivors of violence. Our 25 bed emergency shelter has been providing women a safe place to rebuild their lives since 1978. An Outreach Centre was added in 2006.

Women's Habitat is currently looking to fill one Summer Student Program Support Worker position. We are looking for a dynamic student interested in working for nine weeks in the non-profit sector. This is an excellent opportunity for any post-secondary school student looking to learn and grow with an agency that actively works to end violence against women and children.

With guidance from the counselling staff, the Program Support Worker will develop and implement activities for women and children in South Etobicoke who have experienced violence.

Responsibilities:

- Develop counselling skills by co-facilitation of groups and debriefing with counselling staff.
- Provide support with food preparation.
- Develop Outreach materials with guidance from staff
- Provide leadership on group outings in the community.
- Develop critical analysis by participating in team training and regular meetings.
- Other duties as assigned by the Manager or team members

Qualifications:

- Must be currently enrolled in a college or degree program that works with people in the social service sector such as Children and Youth program, Social Work or Community Worker Program.
