Women's Habitat of Etobicoke
Relief Shelter Counsellor
Casual Work - Evenings and Weekends

Women's Habitat provides shelter and services to women identified individuals and their dependents that have experienced or are at risk of experiencing violence. Our 25 bed emergency shelter has been providing women and their children a safe place to rebuild their lives since 1978. Our Outreach Centre was added in 2006 to provide services to women and children in the community.

Are you interested in working with a feminist organization committed to providing critical supports to women experiencing violence? We are looking for a dynamic advocate who shares our agency values and is passionate about our mission.

The Relief Shelter counsellor provides one to one counselling, programs, referrals and supports to women residing in the shelter when part time and full time shelter counsellors are unable to work their shifts. We are looking for candidates who are able to work overnight, evening and weekend shifts, with minimal notice. Preference will be given to those candidates who have flexible availability.

Responsibilities:

- Provide supportive counselling to women who have experienced trauma as a result of abuse
- Provide case management
- Provide crisis intervention both by phone and in person
- Complete phone and in person intake duties
- Assist women to understand the cycle of violence and the effects of violence on themselves and their children
- Provide information on and referrals to a variety of resources – i.e. housing, education, interpretation, etc.
- Provide advocacy in the areas of (but not limited to): legal, housing, education, child support etc.
- Facilitate groups: i.e. life skills, healthy self-esteem, etc.
- Complete daily administrative duties which include (but are not limited to):
